	..... Did you go to school or not? If yes why? And if no, why not? Listen public voice on this regard. .... You can listen to reports on how girl children are suffering due to lack of education opportunity. What are discriminations in the education on the basis of gender, who gets easy access in the police or administration? Who comes to the police with their cases or complaints ..... Now we discuss with girl child about how you have gotten the opportunity for schooling and how these opportunities are benefiting? .....
Sona	Especially Madhesi, Dalit, and other caste women are suffering with gender-based violence in Kapilvastu. Girl children are not getting opportunity of school going because of poverty, social ill traditions, feeling of the parent as girl are other property. Discrimination between son and daughter, schools are far from the community, reason of security, domestic works, child marriage are the major causes that stop the girls from school going. The one who are dropping out without completing it. Recently an INGO conducted a survey in Kapilvastu sampling 236 girls. The survey shows that 60 percent father and 94 percent mothers of the girl child who does not go to school or dropped out are illiterate. It shows that mother's literacy directly affect in the education of girls education.	]
Sona	Likewise some questions are asked with married women: Have you gone to school? If yes, why and if no? Why not? =====Voxpop===== The Data of District Education Office Kapilvastu shows that male literacy 64.9 percent and women literacy is 44.9 percent. If we see it comparatively, women's literacy is 20.3 percent below male literacy. The data of 2071 shows that 131 070 children are going to school among them 62 988 are girl children. In 62988 43452 are in the primary schools and 1391 are in secondary level.

	It justifies the dangerous status of girl children. It also proves that access of girl children is lowest in the secondary and higher secondary level.
Sona	We have discussed with District policy office about the problems of girl children. We have asked following questions: what are the major causes of gender violence, what sort of victims are coming to the police station for complaints? Who has good access to the police station? ..... Report.....
Sona	A local son with a girl child: A lovely daughter requests her father please do not do my marriage in early age. ..... song.....
sona	Now, you are listening Radio program Samghdari in Radio Kapilvastu 104.2 MHz
Sona	M ===== Parents of Rajan Kurmi, Kapilvastu municipality ward No. 4, are literate so she has gotten the opportunity of schooling. She also lift from the clutch of child marriage because of her education says Ranjan Kumrim. Let's listen her voice .....Report..... If Ranjan had not gotten education, she would have gotten married and became victim of violence. She has completed bachelor degree in her father in law's house.
